

Seeking Documentary Works in Progress for Creative Alliance Screening

Deadline to Submit: February 15, 2012

Docs In Progress is looking for submissions of documentaries at the rough cut stage. Selected films will be shown at a public screening at the Creative Alliance in Baltimore where the filmmakers will have the opportunity to get feedback on their works in progress from an audience of their peers, film professionals, and the general public. The focus of the feedback will be on story and character development and is a great way to get a reality check on your film before submitting it to festivals or trying to get distribution.

GUIDELINES

- Films may be of any length between 5 and 85 minutes.
- Rough cuts only. No trailers or finished films.
- Submissions are accepted from filmmakers of all experience levels, including students.
- There is no fee to submit.
- If selected, filmmaker must be able to attend the screening at the Creative Alliance on Thursday, April 5. (Travel expenses are not covered)

HOW TO SUBMIT

- Complete the online submission form at <http://docsinprogress.org/screenings/screening-submission-form/> no later than Wednesday, February 15, 2012
- Mail or deliver a DVD rough cut of your film to arrive no later than Friday, February 17, 2012 to Docs In Progress/ 8700 First Avenue/Silver Spring, MD 20910/ Phone: 301-789-2797
- The submission MUST be in DVD or Blu-ray format, able to be played on a DVD player. No Quicktime, AVI, YouTube clips, or other digital files.

This program is supported by

